HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Milt Lancaster beat odds of 6000 to 1 in Cleveland the other day and drove home with the evidence.

Milt, owner of the Rancho Market Basket store in Ocean Beach, and his wife, Alice, attended the annual convention of the Supermarket Institute May 1-4 in Cleveland. Some 12,000 persons registered for the convention.

As a premium for visiting all displays, those attending were given a mathematical chance to win the grand prize. The drawing was held at a banquet. From about 6000 numbered cards, 12 were drawn by a dozen pretty hostesses. Then the lucky card was plucked from this "winning hand."

Yeah, it was Milt's. He and his wife were in Pontiac, Mich., at the time, but flew back to Cleveland the next day and collected the prize.

It was a new red-and-white Packard Clipper.

* * *

They drove home in the car and were pleased by its performance. "It rides like a dream," said Milt.

(He turned the Packard loose, on occasion, while crossing Oklahoma. The speed was nothing to be sneezed at.)

Milt visited his father, 95, in Paw Paw, Mich., where 28 people attended the family reunion.

At the convention he picked up this statistic: "Supermarkets have saved consumers 16 billion dollars since 1935."

Point Loma High School has a girls' service club, the Countesses, which chooses its members on the basis of ability to lead and serve others, to succeed in classwork, and get along well with people..

The membership is limited to 25, and 15 will graduate next month. There were 95 applications for the vacant memberships next fall—indicating a strong desire on the part of Point Loma girls to join a school-recognized club.

Fifteen were chosen, as follows:

Juniors—Betty Dawson, Betty Gillenwater, Aldine Harvey, Mary Ann Kovacevich, Mary Lesko and Linda Zuckerman..

Sophomores—Jane Chapman, Amy Emerson, Mary Fletcher, Marilyn Maloney, Karen May, Lynne Phillips, Lenore Scott, Stephanie Smith and Barbara Velasquez.

* * *

Marygrace Colby, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Elliott G. Colby, 3733 Amaryllis Dr., will be graduated by the University of Arizona May 25. She is a former Point Loma High student.

The beautifully-printed graduation announcement mailed from Tucson stated: "The Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-five . . . announces its Commencement Exercises—"

1955, huh? Hey, Held, you've been out of college 30 years. It doesn't seem that long since that warm scented evening in Tucson when the Class of June, 1925, received its diplomas.

* * *

Let's look at the unfaded white "Programme" for those 1925 commencement exercises. "Candidates for Degrees: Yu Hsueh Ting— Economics . . . Alexis Athanasius Makarov—Electrical Engineering . . . Stephanus Christiaan Kreyns—Mining Engineering."

Wonder where those guys are now?

Here's another one: "Duane Augustin Hawkins—M.A. in History. Thesis subject: Anglo-American Isthmian Diplomacy and the Struggle for an Interoceanic Canal."

I know where Hawkins is. He's raising chickens near Chula Vista.

LOMANS ENTER NEWS CONTEST

Fourteen Point Loma High School students will be out to reclaim the sweepstakes trophy they won last year at the 11th Annual High School Journalism Competition Friday, May 20, at San Diego State College. More than 200 students from 18 city and county schools have entered.

Eberhardt, editorial editor; Richard Noonan, editor-in-chief; Robert Simoneau, Jr., sports editor; James Sutherland, advertising manager; and Mimi Zolezzi, columnist.

Ocean Beach Lodge 1755, Loyal Order of Moose, will hold a dance Saturday evening, May 21, with music provided by a fine orchestra.

Four Pony League Teams Open Baseball Season

The Ocean Beach Pony League got off to a rousing start last Saturday when Ocean Beach Merchants defeated Fleetridge Realty, 8 to 4, and 7 Up scored a 13 to 3 win over Ocean Beach Service Clubs.

This week's schedule includes a game today at 5 p.m. between 7 Up and Fleetridge. On Saturday the 21st, the Merchants will play 7 Up at 1 p.m., with Fleetridge and the Service Clubs tangling at 3 o'clock.

Last Saturday's festivities opened with a parade up Newport Ave., led by Point Loma High School's ROTC color guard and its city championship platoon drill team. Ther came the Lomanettes and members of the four Pony League baseball teams.

At the Ocean Beach Elementary School field, an American flag donated by the Family Barber Shop was raised by the color guard. Harry La Dou, president of O. B. Chamber of Commerce, introduced Dr. Will M. Kidwell, of State College, who spoke.

Supervisor Frank Gibson threw the first ball, and after several warm-up pitches he threw one close enough for La Dou to hit it down the third base line.

In the first game, Fleetridge Realty got off to an early 4-run lead against the O. B. Merchants. However, in the sixth inning Don Smallwood of the Merchants hit a home run and this touched off an avalanche of hits, walks and errors, resulting in 8 runs—enough to win the ball game.

Don Willardson was the winning pitcher. Billy Jackson and Ronnie McLeod pitched for Fleetridge, with the latter being charged with the loss.

The second game also was a free-scoring affair. For 7 Up, Billy Fontana got a homer and Chucky Welch was the winning pitcher, while Ray Hermans, the O. B. Service Clubs' hurler, receipted for the 13-3 loss.

This tussle featured a hidden ball play that wasn't allowed because the base umpire wasn't alert to it. Chucky Welch stole home in the third inning.

Don't forget—Tuesday and Thursday games start at 5 p.m., and the first game of the Saturday double-header starts at 1 p.m.

Saturday games will feature announcing by "Ah Shux" Olson. (Enar "Ole" Olson.)

Little League To Open Season

Point Loma Little League will open its season Saturday with two games at Sunset View School playground.

At 10 a.m., Point Loma Kiwanis Club will play Point Loma Rotary Club. The second game, at 2 p.m., will be between De Falco's Market and Point Loma Optimist Club.

Jack Bechard is league president.

CLASSIFIED AD DOES THE WORK

Roy Plummer, of Plummer's Minerals, 4720 Point Loma Ave., ran a help-wanted classified ad in last week's Peninsula News. He expected to get a few calls in response.

"I got about 30 calls Thursday and Friday," he reported.

With a wide selection to choose from, he filled the position to his complete satisfaction. He's sold on the pulling power of "classifieds" in the Peninsula News.

EXPOSITION & COUNTY FAIR TO FEATURE ENTERTAINMENT

Visitors to the 16th annual Southern California Exposition & County Fair at Del Mar, June 24 through July 4, are assured of ample, top-notch entertainment throughout the 11-day run, Secretary-Manager, Paul T. Mannen pointed out this week.

All grandstand shows will be free and will include a three-day championship rodeo, June 24, 25, 26; Lawrence Welk and his television show, June 27-28 and July 4; the California finals of the Miss Universe Pageant, June 29; Smokey Roger's Western Caravan, June 30; and Aut Swenson's Thrillcade, making its West Coast bow July 2-3.

In addition to Welk on closing day, a gigantic fireworks exhibition is scheduled. Grandstand shows will be augmented with the Marion Rankin Dancers, the Ramses, Egyptian tumblers and acrobats; and the Villenacves, a spectacular cycle act. The Hollywood Theatrical Agency, headed by Carolina and Jo Brunson, is producing the shows for the fourth year.

Entertainment will not be limited to the grandstand. "Dancing Waters," an unusual lights-water-music extravaganza, will be presented continuously at night beginning at 8:30. It is being brought back to Del Mar by popular acclaim.

For the first time in several years, the National Horse Show, which runs concurrently with the Exposition, will be presented nitely thus giving a larger number of people an opportunity to enjoy the exciting competition.

Of particular interest to the children will be "Don Diego's Super Circus." Included in the acts are Cheeta, the TV chimp; the Happy Hounds, Sassy the Cat; Jumbo Jr. the elephant; Fine and Dandy, juggling jesters; the Barretts, a trampoline team and Kayletta, who will perform on a 110-foot-high sway pole. Ring master will be Wally Blair. Bozo, King of Clowns, will garner his share of laughs at the circus and elsewhere on the grounds.

There will be a number of door prizes. Attractive hostesses in Mexican attire will sell home-made candy which also will contain numbers for prizes. Singing troubadours — David Pain, Frank Owens, Chet Mellison and Bud Overby—will serenade with requested songs.

All Kiwani-annes will have tickets for sale for the raffle prizes, which include a basket of groceries plus a ham; a hand-knit stole, and a hand-made cut work luncheon cloth. It's not necessary to be present to win these prizes. Just hold the lucky number.

2 Local Youths To Attend Boys' State

Two Peninsula area youths will represent Point Loma High School at Boys' State in Sacramento June 18-25, it was announced this week.

Jack Schroeder and Nicholas Schowengerdt, both 16 and juniors, were selected as representative students on the basis of character, leadership and scholarship.

Delegates from all over the state will meet in Sacramento to set up a government patterned after the state government. From this group two boys will be elected to go to the Boys' Nation at Washington, D. C.

Construction of Groin Started By Contractor

Construction of the long-awaited rock groin (jetty) at Ocean Beach was started this week, climaxing an intensive campaign by the O. B. Chamber of Commerce and the Peninsula News. The groin is expected to prevent sand eroding along the beach.

Under a $27,540 contract awarded by the City Council, the V. R. Dennis Construction Co. started work Tuesday at the foot of Cape May Ave. The job of building the 530-foot groin, which will extend almost due west into the ocean, is expected to take 60 days.

A "dragline"—a huge crane equipped with a power shovel—was being used to excavate toward the mean high tide line in preparation for dumping rock to anchor the east end of the jetty on the beach. Some rock already had been dumped yesterday, and a half-dozen trucks were on the scene with more rock from Mission Gorge.

The jetty will be 11 feet high for the first 230 feet. It will measure 10 feet across the top and 40 feet at the bottom.

Sand from the Mission Bay Channel dredging will be pumped onto the beach between Cape May and Newport Ave., to repair erosion damage.

The Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Peninsula News have conducted a long campaign to get a groin built here to stabilize the beach. Actual start of work was hailed a big step toward development of an ocean front playground second to none.

Sailor Charged With Murder

A 27-year-old sailor, resident of Ocean Beach, was in City Jail yesterday, booked on a murder charge in connection with the death of his 4-month-old daughter. Also, he was charged with attempted homicide involving his two other children.

Robert John Adsit, of 3804 Voltaire St., attached to the Naval Training Center, told police that his wife had left him about 10 days ago. On Tuesday he apparently went berserk, throwing 4-month-old Cynthia against a wall, police reported. She died of a fractured skull.

He also threw his 18-month-old son, Robert, against the wall, and hurled Pamela, the 4-year-old daughter, to the floor and jumped up and down on her, police said. These two children were taken to Naval Hospital in serious condition. Cynthia's body was taken to Beardsley's Funeral Home.

How to make sure you get the right number

Look it up. Be sure you look up the right number in your directory or Blue Book before you start to dial.

Jot it down. It helps to have the number written down in front of you so you don't forget it while you dial.

Dial the complete number. Be sure you dial the first two letters and the numeral of the prefix, then the other four figures. For example, to call CYpress 5-7599, first dial C-Y-5, then dial 7-5-9-9. Pacific Telephone

The proceeds of these annual solicitations are used for rehabilitation and relief works and to help the National V.F.W. Home for members' orphans and widows at Eaton Rapids, Mich. This incidentally is the only home of its kind owned and operated by an Veteran organization.

Grace Pischner, well known local artist, and remembered as the "hitch-hiking" traveler to Europe two years ago, is ready to set forth for Mexico on May 23rd.

Mrs. Pischner had hoped to return to Europe this year, so for the past year she has been studying German, which will be of little help to her in Mexico. She will make her first stop in Mazatlan and spend a day then on to Guadalajara for two days and hit Mexico City where she will spend a week. While there she will take side trips to spots of interest and do some sketching. Then she plans to go to Cuernevaca, Taxco and Acapulco. Back to Mexico City, Pueblo to the coast at Vera Cruz and home. Mrs. Pischner plans to be away a month and travel by air, bus and train. She says "there will be no hitch-hiking on this trip."

TOPS IN SAILING—National fame and honor has come to another San Diego (and Point Loma) youth—this time in sailing.

Don Adams, 20, a junior at San Diego State College, will be one of 3 skippers who will represent the United States this summer in racing competition in Great Britain.

He was chosen by the Yacht Racing Association of North America on the basis of ability, personality and college recommendation. Don Maloy, another State student, will set as crew for Adams.

It seems that just everybody, just everybody in England, that is, sails. There are approximately 500 yachting and sailing clubs in Britain. Beginning with the sailing season at Easter, there are weekly regattas all around the coast during summer.

These weekly contests build up to the great climax of the season called Cowes Week. The two Dons from San Diego and 4 others from the U. S. will compete in this last competition, after a tour of England. Boats will be furnished by the regatta hosts.

Don got his first taste of sailing at Mission Bay at the age of 11 when a pal-with-a-boat, Al Pirie, gave him his first ride. Therein lies a story, too:

The two boys first met at a pre-school play group in Los Angeles when they were 4 years old. Shortly afterwards the Adams moved to San Diego. About 6 years later at an elementary school spring concert the boys met again, Don at the helm of a trombone and Al on a trumpet. Friendships were resumed and sailing started. (Incidently, Al and Don are on the State College team which will represent the Pacific Coast in the National Intercollegiate Sailing Regetta in Boston June 20).

When Don was 13 he had saved enough money from his paper route to buy his first boat, a penquin, which he promptly christened "Guess Who." He joined Mission Bay Yacht Club and started learning to race.

His crowded trophy shelf of cups and plaques tells the next chapter. Notably, however, in 1953 Don placed third in the National Penquin Regetta in Chicago. He and John Hege, 2465 Chatsworth Blvd., drove a '37 model car across country, their penquin 'El Toro", strapped to the top.

Recently Don won the UCLA sailing competition for State College. In December he placed first in Class A of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Sailing championships at Newport Harbor. This month he came in first in the Intercollegiate Easter Regetta sponsored by the Newport Area P. C. Fleet.

As in the Olympics where contributions finance the nations' athletes, so it is in this sailing project. A committee has been appointed to raise money for the England trip. So far their plans are not known. However, contributions may be made to the Alumni Association at State College.

Don is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Adams who live at 3033 Voltaire St.

Smith, director of bands at Point Loma High and Dana Junior High, has a wide experience in teaching and as a member of orchestras, including the San Diego Symphony. Those interested in band instruments will be able to study with him this summer.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Residents Beautify 'Housing' Areas In Clean-Up Campaign

Approximately three more weeks remain until June 5th when judges will award prizes of plants, donated by five local nurseries, and blue ribbons, awarded by the Midway Chamber of Commerce, to residents of Municipal Housing in Frontier, Levant and Presidio projects for their efforts to improve and beautify lawns and grounds surrounding their home. The clean-up campaign contest has been under way since mid-April.

Housing Management will continue to furnish grass seed, fertilizer and garden tools according to Kimball Moore, manager of the San Diego Municipal Housing Department, which took over operation of the Federal Housing in the city January 1st.

Frontier School students from the fourth to the sixth grades have participated in the campaign by making poster which are on display on city trucks and in store windows in the area.

Co-chairmen of the contest are Kimball Moore, Paul Bruhn, Mrs. Michael Kerns and Mrs. Earl R. Hobbs. Committee members include Messrs. Merlin Paine, Philip Alwen, J. C. Leary and Mrs. Hazel McCain.
